

REMOTE WORK CERTIFICATION

Work From Anywhere! For a limited time, there is a free opportunity to enhance your capacity to work remotely. K-State Research and Extension and the North Central Regional Planning Commission* are offering free access to two different month-long online courses which will develop and certify your skills as a more effective remote worker¹ or remote work team leader². Participants will learn skills vital to working autonomously and with long-distance teams, such as:

- » Problem Solving
- » Collaboration
- » Time Management
- » Emotional Intelligence and more.

*This free course is only available to people in Marshall, Washington, Clay and Dickinson counties.

To enroll in the next course offering, register by:

September 27; November 1 or
December 27

¹Remote Work Professional Courses

September 27:

²Remote Work Leader Course

To learn more and to register, contact Community Vitality Specialist:

Deborah Kohl

dkohl@k-state.edu

785-532-5840

kansasremotework.com

Support provided by NetWorked Community Solutions Grant and the North Central Regional Planning Commission.

K-State Research and Extension is committed to providing equal opportunity for participation in all programs, services and activities. Program information may be available in languages other than English. Reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities, including alternative means of communication (e.g., Braille, large print, audio tape, and American Sign Language) may be requested by contacting the event contact two weeks prior to the start of the event at . Requests received after this date will be honored when it is feasible to do so. Language access services, such as interpretation or translation of vital information, will be provided free of charge to limited English proficient individuals upon request.

Kansas State University Agricultural Experiment Station and Cooperative Extension Service

K-State Research and Extension is an equal opportunity provider and employer.