

Lifetime Public Service Award Nomination

The Lifetime Public Service Award is given by the Executive Board of the North Central Regional Planning Commission to recognize individuals or organizations that have made outstanding contributions over many years to the communities and citizens of the region.

The selected recipient will be honored at the NCRPC Banquet, receive a plaque, and be recognized in a media news release.

How to Make a Nomination:

Complete this fillable form and email to communications@ncrpc.org.

Deadline: September 16, 2024

Selection Criteria:

The North Central Regional Planning Commission Executive Board of Directors will review nominations and select a recipient. Criteria to be considered in determining the award winner will include the overall impact of the nominee's accomplishments, the duration of the nominee's engagement in community/public service activities, and the breadth of involvement in the community/region.
